MEMORANDUM FOR: Director of Central Intelligence

VIA: Deputy Director of Central Intelligence

Eloise R. Page
Acting Director, Intelligence Community Staff

FROM:

[Redacted]
Chief, Planning and Policy Staff

LOGGED
17 FEB 1983

SUBJECT: 1983 DCI Exceptional Intelligence Analyst Program

1. A Selection Committee composed of [Redacted] NSA, Chairman; Richard Kerr, CIA; [Redacted] DIA; and Natale Bellocchi, INR, met on 29 October 1982 to review this year's applications for the subject program. The Committee chose 11 candidates from among 26 applicants representing a good cross section of the Intelligence Community production offices. Upon higher-level review, however, two of the candidates were withdrawn from the program, thereby freeing up the funds previously allocated for their projects.

2. As a result, the Selection Committee Chairman urged the Committee members to reconsider those candidates who were not selected the first time for possible inclusion in the program. This was done and the following individuals are now recommended as additional participants in the 1983 program:

DIA

LOC/FRD

NSA

State/INR

USA

USAF

Sydney Ploss

Claus Marzen

Phillip Barger
Walter Parchomenko
Richard Samuels

Synopses of these analysts' proposed programs are at Tab A.

3. In view of the merits of these proposals and the fact that the funds to support them are now available, we strongly recommend that the Class of 1983 be expanded to include these individuals. We believe this action is fully consistent with your stated objective of improving the quality of analysis throughout the Community.

4. If you approve the addition of these analysts to the program, we have, in the interest of time, enclosed the requisite selection letters for your signature (Tab B). The awards ceremony for the Class of 1983 is scheduled for 2 March 1983 at 1100; we hope the newly selected participants can be present.
